If Not Virat Kohli Then These 3 Players Can Be The Captain of RCB

3 - Rajat Patidar

Rajat Patidar has cemented his place in the RCB team on the basis of hard work and skill. After Kohli, he is the second most important batsman of this team. 31-year-old Patidar is at that point of his career where he is enjoying his batting very well. Patidar is captaining Madhya Pradesh in the Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy in domestic cricket and is also being very successful.

Despite captaincy, there is no pressure on his batting and runs are coming out of his bat continuously. He knows the team setup very well, so it will not be a difficult task for him to attract the fans as well.

2 - Krunal Pandya

Krunal Pandya is one of the best captains in the RCB setup. He has a good experience of captaining Baroda, which he has been leading for a long time. Krunal has a lot of experience in leading the T20 team. His team has won all four matches in a row in the Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy. Krunal has good experience of this format and he is also an expert in making strategies. Apart from this, he has also taken charge of Lucknow Super Giants in IPL.

1 - Bhuvneshwar Kumar

Bhuvneshwar Kumar will lead the fast bowling, and he can also be given the leadership of the entire team. Bhuvneshwar was seen captaining in the UP T20 League and has also captained Sunrisers Hyderabad in eight matches on different occasions in the IPL. He is currently captaining UP in the Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy. Bhuvneshwar has been playing cricket for so many years that he has now understood things very well.
